BLUES IN SCHOOLS

Features the incredible Glenn Marais Band, a five piece blues, rock juggernaut that will take your school on a musical ride through the history of one of the greatest musical forms, the blues! From the beginnings of the Delta Blues right on up to the modern sounds of top blues acts, Like Stevie Ray Vaughan, Colin James and more, Glenn and the band can do it all.

The show is a history of the progress in race relations and equity through music, that will have your audiences spellbound and engaged the entire show.

The show is 90 minutes long, with fully interactive multi-media and professional light and sound to go with it.

The band also performs an incredible Black History Show that features the music of Motown, James Brown, Michael Jackson and Bruno Mars.
